

Vocation Bulletin Blurbs 2010 Ordinary Time Weeks 1-6

The Baptism of the Lord - January 10, 2010

Jesus continually spent time in prayer to contemplate his vocation. At our baptisms, the Holy Spirit descended upon us, reminding us of our Christian vocation. If you feel called to baptize and serve others in the priesthood or religious life, please visit www.vocations-syracuse.org.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 17, 2010

Mary gives Jesus “a nudge” to perform the miracle at Cana. Have you ever felt nudged by someone to make a difference in the lives of others? Ask the Blessed Mother to help guide you to your vocation. For more information, contact Fr. Joe O’Connor at 315-470-1468.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 24, 2010

There are many parts in the Body of Christ, that is the Church. Some are called to religious vocations. Do not be afraid to take up your place. For more information on vocations to the priesthood and religious life, visit: www.vocations-syracuse.org.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 31, 2010

“Love is patient, love is kind...” Today’s reading is a favorite at weddings, but it is the theme song of religious vocations, as well. St. Therese, the Little Flower, proclaimed, “I have found my vocation, and it is love.” What is your calling? For help with discernment, contact Fr. Joe O’Connor at joconnor@syracusediocese.org.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time – February 7, 2010

Isaiah felt unworthy when he was called to be a prophet. You do not have to be perfect to follow God. God does not call the qualified. Rather He qualifies the called. For more information on vocations, please visit: www.vocations-syracuse.org.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time – February 14, 2010

The Beatitudes are a life-changing teaching. They need to be proclaimed today, just as much as they did the day Jesus taught them for the first time. If you feel called to teach as Jesus did, contact the Vocations Office at 315-470-1468.
